Aviva Data Protection - Privacy Notice

We collect and use personal information about you so that we can provide you with an insurance policy that suits your insurance needs. This notice explains the most important aspects of how we use your information and what rights you have in relation to your personal information but you can get more information about the terms we use and view our full Privacy Policy at our Privacy page on www.aviva.ie, request a copy by writing to us at Data Protection Officer, Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC, Building 12, Cherrywood Business Park, Loughlinstown, Dublin 18, D18 W2P5 or call us at 01 8988000.

The data controller responsible for this personal information is Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC ("we" "us" "our") as the insurer of the product and can be contacted as above. Additional controllers include your intermediary/broker who is responsible for the sale and distribution of the product and any applicable reinsurers.

1. Personal information We collect

Your data: The personal information we collect and use may include your name, address, telephone number and/or email address, date of birth or age, occupation, country of origin, claims history, employer/employee details (where necessary), business professional history and details, bank account details or payment card details, unspent criminal convictions. We may carry out financial checks and credit searches in relation to your business.

Other people's data: As well as collecting personal information about you, we may also use personal information about other people, for example individuals you wish to insure on a policy.

Note: If you are providing information about another person, we expect you to show them this data protection notice and ensure that they have given you permission to provide this information to us so that we can provide a quote. If they have any concerns, please ask them to contact us in one of the ways described in the "Contacting Us" section.

Child Data: We may need to ask for personal data of a minor (i.e. any person under the age of 18) where a student is below this age. In most cases the personal data sought will be limited to name, date of birth, country of origin, address, email address and contact number. This data will be obtained from the Education provider via by the Financial Broker.

Claims data: If a claim is made, we may also collect personal information about the claim from you and any relevant third parties.

Note: You don't have to provide us with any personal information, but if you don't provide the information we need we may not be able to proceed with your application or any claim you make. We will let you know what information is required to proceed with your application or any claim you make.

Criminal Conviction data: We may ask for details relating to any unspent criminal convictions you and anybody else covered under your policy may have.

We recognise that information about criminal convictions is particularly sensitive information. We will only collect and use such data as follows:

Purpose for which it is used	Our legal basis for using it
Criminal conviction data is used for the purposes of providing quotes and underwriting, managing reinsurance arrangements, processing any claims you may have, fraud investigation and handling any complaints you may have.	To take steps at your request before we enter into a policy (e.g. providing a quote) and to perform our insurance policy with you and people covered under the policy. Irish Data Protection law allows us to use this data in connection with your insurance policy.
We may also need to use your criminal convictions data for the purposes of establishing, exercising or defending legal rights, including in connection with advice, claims, or proceedings, and where authorised by law.

4A. How we share your personal information with others

We may share your personal information:

- with the Aviva group, our agents, your intermediary, third parties who provide services to us such as delegated authorities who provide underwriting and claims services, loss adjusters and investigators to help us administer our products and services;
- with professional bodies, regulatory bodies and law enforcement bodies, including the Gardaí, e.g. if we are required to do so to comply with a relevant legal or regulatory obligation; and
- with reinsurers who provide reinsurance services to Aviva. Reinsurers will use your data to decide whether to provide reinsurance cover, assess and deal with reinsurance claims and to meet legal obligations. They will keep your data for the period necessary for these purposes and may need to disclose it to other companies within their group, their agents and third party service providers, law enforcement and regulatory bodies.
- With Third Party claimants or their legal representatives while dealing with the administration of a claim.

Some of the organisations we share information with are located outside of the European Economic Area, including India. These locations may not provide an adequate level of protection. We'll always take steps to ensure that any such transfer of information is carefully managed to protect your privacy rights. For more information on this please see our Privacy Policy or contact us in one of the ways described below.

4B. How we share your personal information with others for fraud prevention

The data you provide will be used by us and shared with other insurers as well as certain statutory and other authorised bodies for anti-fraud purposes including:

- sharing information about you with other public bodies including the Department of Finance, regulatory bodies (which include the Central Bank of Ireland, Financial Services Ombudsman, Data Protection Commissioner), professional bodies, fraud prevention agencies and the Gardaí;
- private investigators, tracing debtors or beneficiaries, recovering debt, managing your accounts and/or insurance policies; and
- undertaking fraud searches on publicly available information as outlined above and checking the Insurance Industry claims database, Insurance Link. For more information on Insurance Link please go to www.inslink.ie. This database helps insurers check claims information and prevent fraudulent claims;
- Other Aviva entities.

5. Financial checks and credit searches

We may carry out financial checks and credit searches against the policyholder through third parties who provide us with credit information.

6. Using Personal Information to Create Profiles and make Automated Decisions

If you are applying for insurance, we may use tools to create profiles about you and, in some cases, use processes that apply these profiles to make fully automated decisions that may affect the services we provide to you. In the context of arranging an insurance policy, these tools are often used to help assess individual risk or the impact your information might have on the cumulative risk of a group and calculate insurance premiums or to make a decision about whether to extend or renew cover. If you are making a claim, we may use profiling or other forms of automated processing to assess the probability that your claim may be fraudulent or suspect in some way. Where sensitive personal information is relevant to the profiling, such as past convictions, your sensitive personal information may also be used in the profiling models. Please note. You have certain rights in respect of automated decision making where that decision has significant effects on you, including where it produces a legal effect on you. Full details of your rights are can be found in the "Your Rights" section of the Privacy Policy.

7. Online information

When you visit one of the Aviva Group websites, we may record information about your computer or mobile device, including hardware and software used, general location, when and how you interact with our websites. This information is used to note your interest in our websites and improve customer journeys. You have the option to select and manage your preferences when you visit one of these websites.

8. How long we keep your personal information for Information submitted for a quotation may be retained by us for a period of up to 15 months from the date of the quotation. Where you purchase a product from us, information will be held for the duration of your insurance cover and for at least six years after our relationship ends in order to comply with applicable laws and regulations and for use in connection with any claims. For more information on our data retention policies please see our Privacy Policy or contact us in one of the ways described below in the "Contacting us" section.

9. Your rights in relation to Your personal information

You have various rights in relation to Your personal information, including:

- the right to request access to your personal information;
- correct any mistakes on our records;
- erase or restrict records where they are no longer required;
- ask not to be subject to automated decision making if the decision produces legal or other significant effects on you;
- to move certain data to other providers;
- where we rely on your consent as our legal basis for use of your personal data you have a right to withdraw your consent to such use.

Note: you have the right to object to use of personal information based on legitimate business interests. If you do object, we will have an opportunity to demonstrate that there are compelling legitimate grounds which override your rights and freedoms or that processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Please note that any successful objection may prevent us assessing future claims and/or the policy may be cancelled.

For more details in relation to your rights, including how to exercise them, please see our full Privacy Policy or contact us in one of the ways described below.

10. Contacting Us

If you have any questions about how we use personal information, or if you want to exercise your rights stated above, please contact our Data Protection team by either emailing them at DPO@aviva.com, writing to the Data Protection Officer, Aviva Insurance Ireland DAC, Building 12, Cherrywood Business Park, Loughlinstown, Dublin 18, D18 W2P5 or call us at (01) 8988000.
